What can you do?

I Lost Property in Mumbai Schools

There is usually a ton of stuff that is left behind in school: water bottles, snack boxes, pens, pencils, shoes, umbrellas, colour pencils...and most of this stuff remains unclaimed by students, and is eventually hauled off to

1. Request the head of your school to be the liaison for getting this stuff to the right person.
2. Collect this stuff on a quarterly basis (Jan, Apr, Jul, Oct) and bring this to your home. Usually a duffel or a suitcase should suffice.
3. At home,
 - a) Segregate
 - b) Prepare by
 - washing items such as water bottles, snack boxes,
 - washing and ironing clothes,
 - sharpening pencils and colour pencils,
 - wiping-out pencil boxes,
 - throwing out unusable like items like torn clothes, unpaired shoes, dried out felt pens, broken umbrellas, etc.,
 - ripping out used pages of notebooks,
 - stitching any rips or lost buttons in clothing,
 - weeding out textbooks in unusable condition.
